LEGACY INQUEST REVIEWS

Press Release

The Presiding Coroner, Mr Justice Humphreys, will conduct a review of the legacy related inquests identified below on 23 June 2023. The purpose of the reviews is to obtain oral updates from the representatives of the families in these cases where a Coroner has not yet been appointed. The Presiding Coroner has held similar reviews as part of the five-year Legacy Inquest plan.

The reviews will take place in Family Court 2 (RCJ) at the times allocated below.

All legal representatives, participants in proceedings and public should attend court in person unless the Presiding Coroner has decided they can attend remotely applying the interests of justice test in that individual case. Requests for remote attendance or access should be made in advance of the hearing on application by email to legacy@courtsni.gov.uk.
